

Meeting of the Steering Committee of the Erasmus + project

Erasmus+

On 1 February 2021, from 9.30 am to 12.00 pm in a remote form, a meeting of the Steering Committee of the IAS project, "Increasing accessibility of integrated ECEC-services to support all families with young children" was held. This project is financed through the project Erasmus +.

The aim of the meeting was to discuss the tasks and responsibilities of the project partners and the reorganization of further project activities during the COVID 19 pandemic. Discussions were had on important topics such as inspiring practices from individual countries and the exchange of experiences in connection with the functioning of the aid systems. The members of the steering committee are actively involved in the work of providing recommendations developed during the project to the European Commission.

The leader of the project is Kind & Gezin (Belgium). Other partners in addition to the Centre for Family Research of the Nicolaus Copernicus University in Toruń, are: Vernieuwing in de Basisvoorzieningen voor Jonge Kinderen (Belgium); The National Institute for Health and Welfare (Finland); Family Center Mala Ulica (Slovenia); and the University of Tromsø (Norway).
